

November 5, 2020 “The Power of a Hero”

Presenter: Mark Anthony Garrett, of Global Insight Productions, LLC. Currently one of the top-rated motivational speakers in the country, Mr. Garrett has inspired audiences throughout the world with his energizing seminars. As a former student with learning exceptionalities, Mr. Garrett’s life was inspired and transformed by a wonderful teacher who refused to let him fail and fall through the cracks. He has since become a successful businessman and leader, talk show host, and educational consultant.

This high energy presentation is a story of hope, belief and inspiration. This message was designed to rekindle the spirit of families, educators and adults to remind them of their significance and the tremendous value their presence brings to the teaching profession and the lives of the children they serve. This presentation will serve as validation that every student has the potential to succeed in life no matter what his or her situation may be. Furthermore, participants will be given strategies on how to stay motivated and inspired, teach with a spirit of excellence, and strengthen resiliency during challenging times.

This session is designed for all educators, parents, and families.
