

VIRTUAL FAMILY FORUMS 2021-22: TRANSITION AGE YOUTH

This series will present an overview of the unique process of transitioning students with disabilities age 14-22 from the educational environment to their life beyond school.

GeaugaMATT seeks to strengthen the planning process for transitional youth by increasing the collaboration among agencies to support post-school success and achievement.

September 21: "Transition 101"

Learn the basics of transition planning and how it helps a transition-age student start working towards gaining the skills needed for their life beyond school.

November 2: "Transition 102"

A continuation of "Transition 101," learn more about the specific services and activities in the transition process and the tools and organizations available.

December 7: "The Role of the Opportunities for Ohioans with Disabilities in Transition"

February 15: "The Geauga County Board of Developmental Disabilities & Transition"
