

students at the center

A PERSONALIZED LEARNING SYMPOSIUM

June 13–14, 2017 | 8 a.m.–4 p.m.

Paradigm Center at Mentor High School

6451 Center Street | Mentor, Ohio 44060

register now

You are invited to Students at the Center: A Personalized Learning Symposium, a FREE two-day experience designed to immerse attendees in best practices and personalized learning techniques. You will gain experience to embed personalized learning into the fabric of your school and develop collaborative partnerships throughout the state. Breakout sessions will include administrative and teaching practitioners from school districts in Wisconsin and Ohio sharing how they are engaging students in personalized learning experiences.

Graduate Credit

Contact Lake Erie College to earn credit for your participation

Mentor Public Schools Wraparound Course: ED 7209 (1 semester hour, $140)

KROHN

RICKABAUGH

SPRADER

MILLER

Keynote Speakers

Ryan Krohn, Ph.D., Director, James Rickabaugh, Ph.D., Senior Advisor, and Christina Sprader, Associate Director, of the Institute for Personalized Learning as well as Matthew Miller, Superintendent of Mentor Public Schools, will share expertise on blended learning, personalized learning environments, and The Institute for Personalized Learning's Honeycomb Model™

Who Should Attend?

Superintendents, high school principals, middle school principals, curriculum directors, Central Office staff, high school teachers, middle school teachers, and elementary school teachers

Hotel Information

Quail Hollow Resort

11080 Concord Hambden Road | Painesville, OH 44077

Phone: (440) 497-1100

To receive the special event room rate, mention "Fairport Harbor"

Questions

Contact Jovette Hiltunen at jhiltunen@lakeesc.org. Register by May 26.